Moderator: Honorable Dale Ikeda

JOHN TATEISHI

John was incarcerated from age three to six at Manzanar, one of America's World War II concentration camps. He played an important role as the JACL National Redress Director in the successful campaign for a Presidential apology, symbolic reparations, and an educational trust fund. As the National JACL Director, he ensured that the rights of this nation's Arab and Muslim communities were protected after 9/11.
